

Why Not Mix
Brains With
Your Eating?

If you
mix brains with your eating you will be interested in the cost and nutritive value of your food.

Shredded Wheat contains the greatest amount of muscle-building, brain-making material in the most digestible form and at the least cost. A food for the outdoor man and the indoor man—for the invalid and the athlete.

For breakfast heat the Biscuit in oven, pour milk over it (hot milk in winter) and a little cream. If you like the Biscuit for breakfast you will like toasted TRISCUIT (the Shredded Wheat wafer) for luncheon or any meal with butter, cheese or marmalade.

BUTCHERS ARE FOUND GUILTY

Raddon & Williams Convicted of Maintaining Unsanitary Slaughter House.

OTHERS ARE STILL WORSE
SMITH PREPARING TO LET OF-FENDERS GO FREE.

After hearing the evidence against Rad-don & Williams, the butchers charged with maintaining an unsanitary slaughter house, Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith yesterday found the butchers guilty and set May 11 as the day on which he will pronounce sentence.

The complaint against the butchers was made by State Food and Dairy Commissioner John Peterson. Mr. Peterson testified that he had made a number of visits to the Raddon & Williams slaughter house and had demanded that improvements be made. His demands, he said, were disregarded.

Dr. F. E. Murray, a government inspector, stated that he had examined the slaughter house and found it unsanitary.
He said that he had found other slaughter houses in the vicinity of Salt Lake in a worse condition than that of Raddon & Williams. There is only one slaughter house in or near Salt Lake, he said, that was properly connected.

Stanley A. Hanks testified that he had examined the Raddon & Williams slaughter house and had found it in an unsanitary condition.

For the defense, G. E. Williams stated that his firm had spent between $50 and $100 in making improvements in the slaughter house complained of. He said that the firm was exerting every effort to comply with the law. He declared that he and Mr. Raddon were desirous of keeping their slaughter house in a sanitary condition.

Justice Smith explained to the butchers what was required of them for the safeguarding of the public health. He indicated that if the butchers are able to put their slaughter house in a condition that will meet the approval of Commissioner Peterson they may escape being fined.

SENT TO INSANE ASYLUM

Demented Austrian Proves Troublesome Upon Being Removed From the County Jail.

Virginia Bonville, the demented Austrian who was found in Sixth South street, between Tenth and Eleventh East streets, by Detective Schulze on last Tuesday, was committed to the state insane asylum at Provo by Judge Armstrong yesterday.

When Bonville was taken from the county jail yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Sharp and Steele, he did not want to accompany his custodians and clung to every object upon which he could get his hands. He proved troublesome that the deputy sheriffs handcuffed him, although he was not violent. He then refused to walk and at last threw himself prone upon the sidewalk. The actions of the demented man attracted a crowd.

The deputy sheriffs sent for a hack, not being willing to drag their charge to Judge Armstrong's court.

On Wednesday evening, while Bonville was confined in the city jail, Jailor Ripley carelessly left the insane man's door open. Seeing the open door, the unfortunate Austrian walked into the corridor.
There he was seized by Jailor Ripley and several "trustees" and thrown back into his cell.

The demented man then commenced yelling for the jailer to open the door. He made so much noise that Chief of Police Pitt had him taken to the county jail, where there are better arrangements than in the city jail for the handling of demented persons.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic con-

DIES OF HIS INJURIES.

(Special to The Herald.)

Logan, April 24—Archie, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, died this morning of injuries sustained in an accident last evening. The little fellow was running along the pavement on South Main street, pulling a small express wagon, when Alexander Izatt Jr. drove across the street with a load of gravel. The boy was looking back at his little wagon and did not see the approach of the team.
He ran into the horses and was thrown under the front wheel, which passed over his body, crushing him so badly that he died twelve hours later. His father is absent in England.

Professor J. A. Boxell, head of the department of commerce at the A. C., and who resided about a month ago because he saw no future for his department, received word today that he had been unimously elected dean of the department of commerce at the Oregon A. C., located at Corvallis, Ore., and at the head of which is W. J. Kerr, formerly of this state. Professor Boxell goes to Corvallis July 1.

CREME ALICE

Distinctive Qualities
1st—STIMULANT.
Being gently stimulant, it increases the circulation of the blood in the minute vessels of the skin, thus promoting its health and hue.

2d—DETERGENT.
By the separation and removal of the decayed particles that obstruct its pores, it increases the transparency and delicacy of the skin.

3d—EMOLLIENT.
It softens and relaxes the textures of the skin and renders it more elastic and delicate; in fact, it possesses the most varied and exalted virtues and is praised as the BALM of MECCA.
